OLD OPERAS TO BE REVIVED.

"DIE FLEDERMAUS" AND "LA SOMNAMBULA" NEXT.

Resurrection of "I Puritani" and "Il Trovatore" Abandoned-No Time for All the Novelties Herr Conried Has in Mind-Sig. Caruse to Sing in "Faust."

Rehearsals of "Die Fledermaus" are to begin at the Metropolitan Opera House on Thursday and Mr. Conried is hoping to have the Strauss operetta ready for its first performance on Feb. 9. The subscription will be transferred to that night. Mme. Sembrich is to sing Rosalinde, Mme. Alten will be Adele and Miss Fremstad will sing Prince Orloff. The other singers will be MM.Caruso, Dippel, Blass and Reiss. M. Caruso, who sings in the ball is a certain amount of satisfaction in the scene of the second act will interpolate in accordance with the present plan.

To give the opera to all of the subscribers it will probably be necessary to follow the plan adopted in the case of "Il FlautoMagico." when that was made the feature of the season at its first revival several years ago. After the first night the opera will be sung at four performances in succession that all subscribers may have an opportunity

"Furtiva Lagrima" from "L' Elisir d'Amore"

The next revival at the Metropolitan will be Bellini's "La Somnambula," which has not been sung there since Marie Van Zandt made her début in the rôle in the first season of the Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau management. It was sung later at the Academy of Music by the last company brought here by Col. Mapleson in 1896. It may be possible to have the work ready for performance by Jan. 31.

The principal roles will be sung by Mme.
Sembrich and MM. Caruso and Journet.
There is no hope of "I Puritani" this season.
M. Caruso is not anxious to sing the leading part in ing, rôle nor is he desirous of taking part in a contemplated revival of "Il Trovatore," which Mr. Conried is anxious to give. These operas belong more to the répertoire of the older tenors and not to the school of the older tenors and not to the school of Puccini and the younger Italian composers. Figher Caruso is to sing "Faust" here in Italian for the first time this season with Mine. Nordica as Marguerile. The performance will be in Italian and will be the last matinée.

The season is proving all too short for the novelties which Mr. Conried wanted to give, as well as for the revivals which have met with such success. Probably it will be impossible for him to give some of the most successful works on every subscription night, as he desires to do. The programme next week contain more Wagner than usual as Herr Knote must Wagner than usual as Herr Knote must return to Munich by the end of January. He will sing in "Die Meistersinger" on Monday, and in "Tristan und Isolde" on Yednesday. In the performance on Monday evening will be Mines. Ackté and Homer and MM. Van Rooy, Goritz and Muchimann. In the performance of "Tristan und Isolde" on Wednesday Mines. Nordica and Fremsted and MM. Van Rooy of Vlass will sing.

aime. Gadski had in the recent production of the opera. Mmes. Homer and Alten and MM. Scotti and Plançon will also sing in the performance. Mr. Conried hopes, after "La Somnambula," to revive "La Favorita," with Edyth Walker and M. Caruso in the leading rôles.

Mme. Sembrich will be the sololst at the next Sunday concert. She will sing "Casta Diva" and a waltz song by the Polish composer, Kowalski.

S. ROSENFELD'S QUICK TOUCH. Borrowed $100 to Save the "Century Players" and Didn't Pay It Back.

A judgment for $115.98 was obtained against Sydney Rosenfeld, the playwright and theatrical manager, in the First Munioipal Court in Brooklyn yesterday

"Century Players" were at the Princess Theatre, Manhattan, he borrowed $100 from Mrs. Le Baron Allen, giving his note. He told her that unless he had the money right away, the performance could not go on. When the note became due he falled to pay and the suit followed. Execution was issued in the Sheriff's office and the next time Mr. Rosenfeld's "Century Players" appear in Brooklyn the box office receipts will be attached, unless the judgment is raid.

GOT SQUARE AFTER YEARS.

Man Gives Away Whereabouts of Alleged Deserter to the Police.

Thomas Wilson, a laborer, living at 222 West Ninetcenth street, went to the West Twentieth street station last night and told the sergeant that he knew where they could catch a deserter from the Eleventh Artillery at Governor's Island. His name is William Hall and he sneaked the island about six weeks ago Wilson. "He played me a mean, lo wn trick years ago and this is where I Wilson took Detective Adams, to 262

West Twenty-sixth street, and Hall was found there and arrested. He admitted having been in the army, but declared that he never played the mean trick on Wilson. The police held him and notified the garrison at Governor's Island.

Former Negro Jockey, John Hathaway, Hanged.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Jan. 3 .- John Hathaway, colored, formerly a jockey and horse trainer, and who was well known among racetrack habitues about New York, was hanged here this morning for the murder of his mistress, Ella Thomas. His neck was broken and he died without a struggle.

Miss Eleanor Russell, daughter of ex-Judge Horace Russell was married to L. Graeme Scott, an Englishman, yesterday afternoon, in the Church of the Incarnation, by the Rev. Dr. Battershall, rec-Peter's Church, Albany, assisted by the Rev. William M. Grosvenor, rector of the church. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by her sisters, the Misses Josephine Russell by her sisters, the Misses Josephine Russell and Marie L. Russell, as bridesmaids. Señor Juan Risno, First Secretary of the Spanish Legation at Washington was the best man Haroid FitzGerald, Frederic R. Swift and J. Wells Farley of Boston, Cecil Barret, Rodman Gilder George Weston, 2d., A. D. Shepard, Jr., and Edward Wallinckrodt, Jr., of St. Louis were ushers. The bride wore a white gown made over satin with a long square train flounced with point lace. The yoke was of lace, with puffed chiffon sleeves triumed with Ice. The tulle veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of liles of the valley. The trimmed with lace. The tulle veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore white chiffon costumes tucked and with lace insertions, with waists to correspond and white maline hats with feathers. They carried bunches of big red roses. Judge and Mrs. Russell gave a reception at 47 Park avenue after the ceremony.

Fleming-Pelgram.

Miss Caroline Marie Pelgram of 91 River-side Drive was married to Henry Stuart Fleming by the Rev. Harvey Glass at her home.

Miss Nathalie A. Bloom and Walter Howard Edgerly of Boston were married at noon, yesterday, in the Church of the Messiah. The bride wore white satin, lace, tulle and brange blossoms. M. Edgerly was the best man and Wilfred Bloom, Albert A. Boyden, Atthur Anthony, Joseph Crocker, George Marria and William Smith were marriaged. Harris and William Smith were ushers.

BOOKS AND THEIR MAKERS.

Hall Caine, whose latest novel, "The Prodigal Son," is netting him many thousands of dollars, was once asked if he were happy in his tremendous success. "Happy?" answered the author. "The only times that writing makes a man happy is when he is actually writing, actively evolving a scene or passage that seems to him successful, or directly after. There are many poor places in all great books and all great poems, but there are a few spots in each that are as gleams of light, after the writing of which one feels a temporary satisfaction. Nothing in the world, especially no long piece of prose, can be all satisfactory any more than any human being can be perfect. On the other hand," smiled the novelist, "literary history has it that even Shakespeare was a good buslness man, and I will not deny that there material benefits from one's work." Judging from the Bookman's list of popu-far books Meredith and Hardy, Barrie, James and Howells are quite out of the running, being quite distanced by John Fox, Jr., Booth Tarkington, Kate Douglas Wiggin, Marion Crawford, Mary Johnston. Gilbert Parker, Richard Harding Davis and a few others. According to the compilations of the months "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" and "Rebecca" take the blue ribbon for being mentioned six months in the lists; "In the Bishop's Carriage" gets a red bow for five mentions and third place is given to "The Call of the Wild," "The Deliverance," "Sir Mortimer," "The Silent Places" and "The Crossing." Four of the eight best books were written by men and four by women. It must be remembered in defence of public taste that Oshkosh and Duluth have just as good a chance at the lists and at pulling down the averages as classic Boston, and also that despite the data of the reports Henry James has gone into a third edition.

Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, the author of "Kate of Kate Hall," is also the author of several other books, including the famous "Concerning Isabel Carnaby." "I have been writing a book a year ever since my first book was published," she said to a friend in a despondent mood, "but when I look at a set of Dickens with fifty-three volumes in it, I confess that my heart fails me. When one considers the length of the novels of his day, the courage of the Viotorian writers is positively appalling."

Rudyard Kipling has sailed for South Africa to spend the winter months at his home at Rose Bank, near Cape Town. This is the house presented to the author by his friend and admirer, Cecil Rhodes.

The two popular authors named Conrad are frequently confused in the public mind. Stephen Conr.d, the author of that clever bit of humor, 'Ine Second Mrs. Jim," is Nordica and Fremsted and MM. Val. Rooy and Blass will sing.

"Die Walkuere" will be the opera on Thursday, with "Faust" at the Saturday who writes the powerful sea stories, though, oddly enough, the latter wrote several years ago a book called "Lord Jim." Stephen Conrad is an American and is not rependently. The same will sing Amalia, which sime. Gadski had in the recent production of the opera. Mines, Homer and Alten of the opera. Mines, Homer and Alten of the opera. quite another person from Joseph Conrad, Admirers of Henry Harland, author of the justly popular "Cardinal's Snuff Box," will be pleased to learn that the lung trouble from which Mr. Harland has been suffering is not of the incurable type and that he is rapidly improving at San Remo.

The Century Company has in press a new novel by Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, the title and subject of which has not been announced. Dr. Mitchell will be 75 years old in February, but he is still actively engaged in literary work and considers his new novel the strongest story he has ever Action" series is a careful and thorough how to find happiness in work, no matter when Mr. Rosenfeld's biography of Sir Walter Raleigh, one of where one lives or what kind of work one the famous English navigators and sea is doing. fighters, whose closest interest to us is his explorations in America.

> Mr. Owen Johnston brings out a new book in January entitled "In the Name of Liberty," a story of the stormy days of the French Revolution. An interesting history attaches itself to Mr. Johnston's West O. Henry has joined the ever increasfirst book, "Arrows of the Almighty," which was written when the author was only 22 years of age. Mr. Johnston had been a student at Yale, and, on account of an attack of typhoid, had missed the last five months of his college course and naturally failed to receive his degree. The faculty of Yale allowed the book to stand for the work omitted during his unavoidable absence, and Mr. Johnston received his coveted Brethren," and others that have gone before sheepskin and membership in the college it, such as "She," "Allan Quartermain," &c., alumni-a very pleasant tribute to the with that of the first three books written value of a "first book" written by a very young author. The stories by E. W. Hornung which are being printed in The Strand will be issued in mid winter in book form under the title of "The Singaree," this being the name of the desperado-hero of the tales. Unusual interest in the book is aroused in consequence of the popularity of Mr. Hornung's new series of stories now appearing in Collier's Weekly, which deal with the adventures of Raffies, amateur cricketer and Proofs of the sixth volume of John B. McMasters's "History of the People of the United States" are now in hand for publication. The book deals with the period of Jackson, the nullification and the war on the United States banks. The author has received valuable assistance in its preparation by special permission given to him to study a large mass of Jackson papers acquired by the Library of Congresa but not yet catalogued and therefore not available for general reference. Mr. Mc-Masters has spent some twenty years already on his history, devoting the last five or six years to the volume now in course of Major Seaman's book on the Japanese war, now going into its second edition, has a history unique in the annals of bookmaking. It was written, printed and bound, its pictures selected and repro- an agreement with the trustees of Lake duced from photographs, in twenty-seven days, including four Sundays, Thanks- $40,000 should be set aside, the income of giving Day and four half holidays. When Major Seaman landed in America he had for successive periods of ten years at comno idea of writing the book, as the pub- pound interest, the accumulations of one lisher's letter asking him to do so had failed to reach him.

Among the early publications of the year to be issued by D. Appleton & Co. are "The House of Hawley" a touching story of an iron willed old grandfather and the young granddaughter whom he hey have gone South for their honeymoon and will live at 14 East Sixtieth street. Mr. Jeming is secretary of the Bituminous Coal trade Association. Mrs. Fleming is secretary of the New York branch of the Vassar in sentiment, touches on politics and the students. And Society. negro question, but ends happily before anything very desperate happens. "The Fire of Spring" is the suggestive title of for the best work which shall be presented another book to be published by the same firm this month. It is written by Margaret Potter of Chicago, whose first book, written when she was very young and impulsive, was so intense in spots that her father bought up the entire edition and | year a series of stories written by him from | in her honor.

suppressed it. Miss Potter is older and iser now and has written several other books since that first unfortunate adventure in the literary arena. Somewhat later in the season will appear "The Life Insurance Company," written by William Alexander, secretary of the Equitable Life and brother of James W. Alexander, president of that company.

In the estimation of John Duke, Lord Coleridge, Lord Chief Justice of England, whose "Life and Correspondence," edited by Ernest Hartley Coleridge, has just been published by the Appletons, Chicago, with her Lake Shore Drive; New York, with her Riverside Drive; and Washington, with her broad and shady avenues, must all give place in beauty to the intricate tangle of streets called Boston. "Far the most beautiful city in America," wrote Lord Coleridge in one of his letters, "is Boston, and the State House is the most beautiful building in the coun-

Interest in Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis's "Quest of John Chapman" is particularly active throughout the Middle West, where that singular and heroic old character pursued his beneficent task and where his memory is still kept green. Local historical societies preserve many interesting traditions about the orchards which Chapman planted and the orchards which sprang in time from these.

The Rev. William Elliot Griffis, at one time professor of physics in the Imperial University of Tokio, a member of the Asiatic Societies of Japan and Corea, and a well known authority and writer on Japanese history and conditions, likes Okakura-Kakuzo's "Awakening of Japan" so well that he has read it four times. He writes that the "Awakening of Japan" "in real interpretative value outweighs a score of the books written on Japan during the prolific year of 1904. Naturally it will take a long time for Occidental men, especially of the average sort, to appreciate the depths and reserve forces of Japanese civilization, but Mr. Okakura's book interpretation is mighty to help in the desired work."

The popularity of Annie Fellows Johnston, author of the Little Colonel books, is receiving fresh confirmation in the great quantity of letters that are arriving from every State and Territory in the Union in answer to an offer made by her publishers to send free of charge a photogravure portrait of Mrs. Johnston suitable for framing to any one who would ask for it

The Christian Science novel *Talitha Cumi" in spite of the adverse criticism of the reviewers, is in its second edition, and a third printing will soon be required, all of which emphasizes the growth of the cult rather than the value of the novel.

That Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox is an author of popularity in Canada is evidenced by the fact that the demand for her new book, "A Woman of the World," has been so great as to call for a special Canadian Toronto by arrangement with her Ameri-

It is interesting to note how the prominent tendency in modern literature for books containing practical inspiration toward a more rational and happy life has closely followed upon the "return to nature" of a few years ago. Two books bearing upon this double movement toward a life closer to nature and to happiness are "The Fat of the Land," by John W. Streeter, and "Happiness; Essays on the Meaning of Life," by Carl Hilty. Dr. Streeter's book tells of a man who went back to the land whole heartedly and made a better living and a richer, fuller life off his farm than from his lucrative medical practice. Mr. Hilty, on the contrary, recognizes that all people cannot The new volume in the *English Men of forsake town for rural life, so he points out > the amusing novel of Central American politics called "Cabbages and Kings," is really a nom de plume, and the incognito of the author is as carefully guarded as possible. After many years wandering in the ing literary colony in New York, with his eyes wide open, he says, and it is to be expected that the peculiarities of metropolitan life will receive the same amusing treatment from his pen in the near future as the oddities of Western life have in the past.

> It is interesting to compare the success of Rider Haggard's latest book, "The by this distinguished romanticist, for which he received the munificent sum of ten pounds sterling. The young author was naturally rather discouraged by this early reception, but resolved to make one more venture, producing "King Solomon's Mines," which made him famous at once.

The month of Febrary promises some volumes of his "Life of Reason," upon which a variant of the most recent and popular phase of philosophy known as "pragmastatement of this general view and the most American scholar.

In the Literary Lives Series is presented "Coventry Patmore," by Edmund Gosse. In the Bross Library will be published "The Bible, its Origin and Nature," by the Rev. Marcus Dods, D.D., of New College, Edinburgh. For the benefit of those who have forgotten or perhaps never knew what the Bross Foundation is, it may be interesting to state that in 1879 the late William Bross of Chicago, at one time on in the springtime." Lieutenant-Governer of the State of Illinois, desiring to make some memorial to an agreement with the trustees of Lake Forest University, whereby the sum of which was to accumulate in perpetuity, decade to be spent in the following decade for the purpose of stimulating the production of the best books and treatises on the mutual bearing of the facts of knowledge with and upon the Christian religion. The gift contemplated in 1879 was consummated in 1890, and Dr. Dod's book is the second volume of this unique library. Once in every fifty or thirty years the entire on or before June 1, 1905. Booth Tarkington, it will be remembred, was not long ago elected as a member of the Indiana Legislature. During the last amount of the simple interest accumulated during the previous decade is to be along the lines indicated in the trust. Accordingly a prize of $6,000 has been offered time to time, dealing chiefly with political characters and situations in a small Middle Western community, have appeared in collected and will be published by McChure, Phillips & Co., the latter part of January, in a book entitled "In The Arena." The simple Hoosier people and the humorous and pathetic figures that rise out of the rural population into political prominence are treated sympathetically, with a mixture of humor, satire and pathos that appeal potently to the interest.

"The Secret Woman," the new novel by Eden Philipotts, announced for publication in January by the Macmillan Company, is a simple story of rude and romantic characters in which love and passion play strong parts, and descriptions of the lonely and picturesque Devonshire scenery abound. Mr. Philipotts is one of the band of living novelists whose work has substance as well as power, and his books) their retail stock of popularity is of the steadily increasing kind that promises perpetuity.

The story of "A Strange Pocketbook," which will appear in the January St. Nicholas is the true account of an actual incident which took place during the civil war. It will add to the interest in this contribution to know that the small heroine of the story was the mother of Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, the well known author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." Another entertaining their usual net prices. paper appearing in the same number is written by Miss Bertha Runkle, author of "The Helmet of Navarre" and tells the everyday experiences and pleasures of the girls and boys of Japan, China and Corea.

The translation of Mr. Münsterberg's Die Amerikaner" has met with a cordial reception and has received the serious consideration in the literary world which such a work warrants. The writer is a man of unusually brilliant academic achievements with the thorough training which is characteristic of the German scholar. He was a student at the University of Geneva and also at Leipsic, where he obtained his Ph. D. His degree as doctor of medicine he received at Heidelberg in 1887, and in 1888 he became assistant professor of philosophy in the University of Freiburg. In 1892 he was called as professor of psychology and director of the psychological laboratory to Harvard. In addition to his many degrees he has been decorated with the Red Eagle of the third class by the German Emperor.

Mrs. Wharton's new story. 'The House of Mirth," opens entertainingly in the January Scribner's and introduces the heroine, a young woman socially well placed, but whose circumstances are limited and whose only chance of continuing in her accustomed luxurious career lies in her contracting a successful marriage. The second installment of the story promises to carry the reader to a house party on the Hudson, where unusual things are bound to happen and to be presented in an interest compelling manner as long edition, which has been brought out in as Mrs. Wharton gives the matter her supervision. It is the author's most ambitious venture in the field of fiction and deals with affairs of the present, a much more crucial test of a writer's power than the remantic chronicles of the past which cannot be verified by comparison with

Now that "She" is to have a sequel and Sherlock Holmes has been galvanized into activity again, lovers of the adventurous will take a new lease of life. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's book will be called "The brought out early in February and illustrated by Charles Raymond Macauley. In the thirteen new tales which the book contains, Sherlock is said to be even more astute, brilliant and astounding than ever. The same mystery, the same impending perils, the same hairbreadth escapes that thrilled in former volumes day by a southbound expre-

Speaking of the author of the new book recalls the memory of a picturesque cottage in England, quite hidden by the hedges and trees that surround it, well off the main travelled road in a lane of its own, where the roses climb up to blossom inside the drawing room windows, and where a fascinating old lady, with all the eagerness and charm of a child, delights in talking about a boy named Arthur, who never would learn his lessons, but would lie on the rug in front of the nursery fire writing stories when he was 6 years old. There aren't any more old ladies in America but this gracious gentlewoman, in her snowy cap and black silk gown with real lace frills school of graciousness and dignity. When the tea is finished she often gives the visitor as a souvenir a photograph of the author of "Sherlock Holmes" signed proudly and fondly "From his Mother." One is also reminded in speaking of this English author that when he came to Chicago, some years important volumes of literary value and ago, he was introduced by the president seriousness from the Scribner Press. of a literary club-a man better known in George Santayana, Ph.D., will present two the street than in literary circles-as Canon Doyle. When the author had recovered he has been engaged for the last seven from the shock of the undeserved ecclesiyears. Prof. Santayana's general view of astical honor that had been thrust upon the universe and its problems is said to be him, he made everybody forget all about the blunder by telling a little tale of how he had read as a small boy of the famous tism," but it is an original and brilliant | cataract of Lodore, how he had longed to visit the scene and how finally after many important recent work in philosophy by an | years he had made a special pilgrimage to see for himself "how the water comes down at Lodore." After much wandering and vain searching, he sat down on a rock in a perfectly dry field to rest and reconnoitre A laborer passed and Mr. Doyle asked if he could tell him where he could find the famous falls. "The falls of Lodore is it you're seekin'," said the rustic, "Why, mon, you're settin' on 'em. The water comes down grand over that rock you're

Mrs. Alec Tweedie has just added another to her ever growing list of books in the shape of a new book called "Sunny Sicily, its Rustics and Ruins." The title is a thing to forgive her for in consideration of her unspoiled enthusiasm and unfailing high spirits-elements of first importance in a story of travel.

It was some nine years ago that Mrs. Tweedie made her first effort in this line of literature under the title of "A Girl's Ride in Iceland," and since then she has written five other books descriptive of her experience in foreign lands. She is a rapid and methodical worker. Her father was the late Dr. Harley, whose life she has written, and her late husband was a grandson of the Dr. Tweedie who founded the London Fever Hospital early in the offered as a premium for the best book century.

Miss Mand Ely Engaged. WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 .- The engagement announced of Miss Maud Ingersoll Ely, laughter of Mrs. Richard S. Elv of 1719 N street, Northwest, to Dr. Linsly Will-iams of New York. Miss Ely is a New Yorker, but has spent several winters here. The engagement was announced at a tea

Dodd, Mead & Company

Clearance Sale

Previous to Annual Inventory, February 1st, they will offer (with the exception of current net

NEW BOOKS of the DAY STANDARD SETS FINE BINDINGS RARE COLLECTED SETS

at DECIDED REDUCTIONS from

Some Books at Cost. Some Below Cost.

Fifth Ave. and 35th Street Dodd, Mead & Company

RARE-La Pontaine's Tales, Rozana, Gesta Romanorum, Rousseau's Confessions. Any book. PRATT, 161 6th av.

MISS STEWART A DEBUTANTE. Makes Her Bow to Society at a Dinner Dance at Her Home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rhinelander Stewart gave a dinner dance last night at their home, 24 West Fifty-seventh street, at which they presented to society their daughter Anita. Mrs. Stewart and the débutante received the gueste, who in-cluded the Duke and Duchess of Manchester, Comte and Comtesse de Rougemont, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies, Mr. and Mrs. George B. de Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Drexel, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mrs. Stulyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet, Mr. and Mrs. George Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. D. Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehr, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney D. Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Widener, Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt. The dinner was of sixty covers. After-ward a Hungarian band, screened with

The dinner was of sixty covers. Afterward a Hungarian band, screened with exotics, played for dances. Harry S. Lehr led the cotillon, dancing with Miss Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish gave a dinner for sixty at 25 East Seventy-eighth street, going afterward to the dance.

The second Junior Cotillon was given at Sherry's. Stowe Phelps, who led, danced with Miss Corinne Robinson. The patronesses included Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Mrs. Hilborne L. Roosevelt, Mrs. W. Emlen Roosevelt, Mrs. Frederick A. Snow, Mrs. J. Wetherill and Mrs. James Sheldon.

Return of Sherlock Holmes," and will be KILLED BY SUBWAY EXPRESS. Workman on Track Ground to Pieces

-Companion Stepped Out of Danger. the construction department of the Interborough, was killed in the subway under Broadway at Seventy-sixth street yesterescapes that thrilled in former volumes are present in this one, and the reincarnated sherlock offers even more complex problems than of yore and unravels them with even greater deftness.

and Henry Taafe were working side by side on the track. An express approached and whistled. Taafe stepped out. He curred as the express passed in time to see the body of his comrade being whisked ut of sight.

out of sight.

The express ran almost to the Seventysecond street station before it could be stopped. It carried one of Schmidt's legs all that distance, and left the rest of the body strewn in pieces along the track.

William Gee, the motorman, was arrested.
In the afternoon he appeared before Magistrate Pool in the Seventh district court and was paroled.

PAPA HENKEL IN PEARLS. He Puts on the Phyllis Dodge Jewelry and Fraulein Screams. The occupants of the Federal Building yesterday had a private view of the Phyllis tion to-morrow. They also had a private cap and black silk gown with real lace irilis tion to-morrow. They also not the jewels on the flowing sleeves, belongs to the old view of Marshal Henkel and of the jewels on the flowing sleeves, belongs to the old view of Marshal Henkel and of the jewels on the marshal together. When Mr. and the marshal together. When Mr. Henkel put the necklace of pearls (value $56,096) around his swanlike neck and the rings on his fingers and then put on another necklace (value $7,200) his daughter ran necklace (value $7,200) his daughter ran screaming from the room.

EUROPEAN HOTELS.

800 Guests.

METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE. Grand Opera Season 1904-1905. Under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Confect.
To-night, at 8—LA BOHEME. Sembrich, Alteu;
Caruso, Scotti, Journet, Rossi. Conductor, VignaThurs. Evg., Jan. 5th, at 8:30—First Perf. of The RING CIRCLE—DAS HHEINGOLD. Fremslad,
Walker, Alten, Weed; Burgstaller, Dippel, Van
Rooy, Goritz, Relss, Blass, Muhimann. Cond. Hertz.
Fri. Evg., Jan. 6th, at 8—AlDA. Nordica, Wait
Ker, Caruso, Scotti, Planeon, Muhimann. Con-Fri. Evg., van.
ker. Carnise, Scotti, Plancon, and.
ker. Carnise, Scotti, Plancon, and.
ker. Carnise, Scotti, Plancon, and.
Sat. Mat., Jan. 7th, at 2—LOHENGRIN. Eames.
Sat. Mat., Jan. 7th, at 8—CARMEN. Fremstad,
Conductor, Hertz.
Sat. Evg., Jan. 7th, at 8—CARMEN. Fremstad,
Ackie; Dippel, Journet, Parvis, Dufriche, Begue.
Conductor, Vigna.
Sun. Evg., Jan. Sth, at 8:30 at Pop. Prices,
Sun. Evg., Jan. Sth, at 8:30 at Pop. Prices,

nductor, Vigna.
Sun. Evg., Jan. Sth. at 8.20 at Pop. Prices.
GRAND SUNDAY NIGHT CONCERT.
Nullo. Entire GRAND SUNDAY NIGHT CONCERT.

Soloists-Nordica, Homer; Journet, Nulbo. Entire Met. Opera Orchestra. Conductor, Franko.
Mon. Evg., Jan. 8th. 8t 7:30—DIE MEISTERSINGER. Ackte, Herner; Knote. Van Rooy, Blass, Goritz. Muthimann, Reiss. Conductor, Heriz.
Wed. Evg., Jan. 11th. 8t 7:46—TRISTAN UND
ISOLDE. Nordica, Frenstad; Knote. Van Rooy,
Blass, Muthimann, Bars. Conductor, Heriz.
Thurs. Evg., Jan. 12th. 8t 1:50—Second Perf.
of the RING GYCLE—DIE WALKUERE. Eames,
Senger-Hettaque, Homer, Burgstaller, Van Rooy,
Blass. Conductor, Heriz.
Pri. Evg., Jan. 13th. at 8—CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA. Evg., Jan. 13th. at 8—CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA. Conductor, Vigna.
Sale of seats for next week's performances betins to-morrow (Thursday) at 9.A. M.

Sale of seats for next week's performances gins to-morrow (Thursday) at 9 A. M.

DER RING DES NIBELUNGEN.
Thurs., Jan. 19th. at 7:30.
Thurs., Jan. 29th, 7:30. GOETTERDAEMMERUNG
SEATS NOW ON SALE.
WEBER PIANO USED. IRVING PLACE THEATRE. Evenings at 8:20 TO-NIGHT Double Bill: 1. "Zum Einstedler." 2. "Die Romantischen," with Harry Walden.

NEW AMSTERDAM Eve 8.15. Reg. Mat. Sat. langer's HUMPTY DUMPTY LIBERTY (2d St., west of B'way, Evgs. 8:15 Klaw & Erlanger "IN NEWPORT" NEXT MONDAY EVENING—Introduction of GILBERT and sulfill sulfil

NEW YORK | 25c., 50c., 75c., $1.00

BELASCO THEATRE. EV. 8:15. Mats. | MONT WARFIELD IN THE MUSIC MASTER Mon., Jan. 9 In The Music Master at The Bijou Theatre, where seats are now on sale 4 weeks ahead.

WED. DAVID BELASCO WILL PRESENT MRS. LESLIE CARTER in the New Play ADREA by David Belaseo and New Play Seat Sale OPENS. TO-DAY.

ONLY THIS WEEK OPEN 9 A. M.
MADISON SOUARE CARDEN.
SIXTEENTH ANNUAL SHOW.
NEW YORK POULTRY, PIGEON and PET
STOCK ASSOCIATION (Ltd.).
All the Noted Breeds, Game Birds, Bantams, Fancy
Fowl, Exhibition Yards, Incubators, Grand Display of Pigeons, Song and Caged Birds, Cavles and Raphils. Rabbits.

NEW YORK'S CAT SHOW.

Under Direction of Atlantic Cat Club.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

ADMISSION, 60c. CHILDREN, 25c.

MAJESTIC BABES IN Ev. at 8. Mats. TOYLAND SUNDAY Victor Herbert's Orchestra WEST END EVES. 8:15 Mat. TO DAY, 26 & 500.
Merry Shop Girls

VECSEY

CARNEGIE HALL.

Next TUESDAY EVE.
The Marvellous Young Violinist.
Sale opens Thursday at Hall, Hotels and Agencies.

BERKELEY LYCEUM EV. 8:30. Mat. Thur. & Sat. ROBERT T. HAINES "ONCE UPON A TIME" by Genevieve

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, 14th St. & Irving Place,
-- A WONDERFUL SUCCESS-SIBERIA PEOPLE 150 THOS. W. ROSS People Louis Schmidt, a workman employed by Prices: 25,30,75,1.00. Mats. To-day & Sat. 2; Eve. 5:15

BROADWAY THEATRE, B'way & 41st st. FRITZI SCHEFF Fatinitza

May Irwin Last Week

May Irwin Tel. 1850 Mad. Bijou

Programme HAYDN, Quartet G. minor. DVORAK.
Terzette; SCHUBERT, Quartet D minor.
Subsc. & single tickets at Ditson's, 807 R'war, Evgs. 8:25. Last Mat. Saturday 2:20.

MRS. BLACK IS BACK.

Mon., Jan. 9—Warfield in "The Music Master."

AMMERSTEIN'S Eine Fay, 8 Vassar Girls, Victoria, 42d, B w b sewell's Manlkins, W. H. Ev. 25, 50, 75, 100. Murphy, Hanche Nichols Mats.daily, 25c.,50c & Co., others.

YORKVILLE MAT. TO-DAY. 25 & 50c. Mattle Keene & Co., Powell Marionetics, Geo Wilson, other GRAND MAL LULU GLASER MARCAP AMERICAN SHADOWS ON THE HEARTH

Wore Murdered Man's Trousers. LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 3.-A despatch from Hindman, Knott county, this morning F. Dodge jewels, which are to be sold at auc- says: "When John Kelley was presented in court here for examining trial, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Anderson Young, who was also robbed, and for which crime John Moore is being held to the Grand Jury, it was discovered that he wore a pair of trousers which the dead man had on when last seen by his

EUROPEAN HOTELS.

No Charge

for

Light or

Astendance.

Table d' Hote

In

American Patronage Specially Invited.

Notwithstanding recent alterations to London Hotels,

The HOTEL CECIL

is still the Largest and Most Magnificent Hotel in Europe.

HOTEL CECIL

LONDON. (Within three minutes of Charing Cross).

BEDROOMS Single from 5s. per day Double from 8s. 6d. per day ... SUITES Accommodation (Bedroom, Bath, & Sitting Room) from 25s. ... ... Breakfast, 2s. 6d., 3s., 3s. 6d. ... Lunch, 3s. 6d. ... ...

Dinner, 5s. ... ...

Dejeuner, 5s. ... Dinner, 7s. 6d., & 10s. 6d. ... Souper, 5s. .. .. ... or à la carte.

The Cuisine of the Cecil is under the direction of Monsieur Antoine Coste, one of the finest chefs in Europe. For three years in succession the £100 Challenge Trophy (Championship Prize) has been awarded to The Hotel Cecil by the Committee of the Food and Cookery Exhibition.

Cable Address: "CECELIA," LONDON.

EMPIRE THEATRE, 40th St. & B'way.

MAUDE ADAMS THE LITTLE MINISTER. Herald Sq. THEATRIS, 85th & B'way, Ev. 8:15 Mats. TO DAY & Sat. 2:15. WOODLAND A MUSICAL FOREST FANTAST GARRICK THEATRE, 85th St. near B'way RUSSELL Brother Jacques

AMUSEMENTS.

ARNOLD DALY

In "YOU NEVER CAN TELL," KNICKERBOCKER, Broadway & 88th St. VIOLA ALLEN WINTERS TALE HUDSON THEATRE, 44th St., near B'way.

Ethel Barrymore SUNDAY SAVOY THEATRE, 84th St., nr. B'way. MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11-Seats Thursda Augustus Thomas' New Comedy, MRS. LEFFINGWELL'S BOOTS.

LYCEUM B'way & 45th St. At 8:30 CHARLES WYNDHAM -MARY MOORE "MRS. GORRINGE'S NECKLACE."
Monday, "The Case of Rebellions Susan."

DALY'S Broad Mathree Saturday, 2715.
Last Mathree Saturday, 2715.

EDNA MAY THE SCHOOL CRITERION THEATRE, 44th St. & B'way, GREAT LAUGHING SUCCESS. 7-Times, FRANCIS

"WILSON'S" "Is funnier than he ever was in any musica hay."—Mail and Express.
"BIG HIT"
"FROLICS INTO SUCCESS."—Sun.
"COUSIN BILLY" "Certain to furnish very ecceptable diver-dons for many weeks "-World "THAT"S ALL"
"BIG WHACKING SUCCESS."-Press.

Wallack's B'way Sho-Gun By Geo. Ad &30th. 8:20. Mats. Sho-Gun and Gusta To-day & Sat. Garden, 27&Mad. Av.Ev. 8:20. Mat. TO-DAY. Geo. Ade's New Amer. COLLEGE WIDOW 14th St. THEATRE, at 6th Av. Mat. TO DAY Henry W. Savage offers, Richard Golden in Common Sense Bracket

3 3rd SYMPHONY CONCERT 8 For Young People Saturday, January 7, at 2:30. WAGNER, Overture, "Tannbauser," Soloist: MR. FRANCIS ROGERS.

****** Lillian Russell LADYLE PRINCESS, B'way & 28th St. "The House of Edward Terry burnside" & "Bardell va Pick Edward Terry wick." Sat Ngt. Sweet Lavender LYRIC 42d St., w. of B'way. Last Week.
Mats. TO DAY & Sat.
JAMES HACKETT in The Fortunes
K. HACKETT in the King.

AEOLIAN HALL, ADELE MARGULIES TRIO

Miss Adele Margulles, Planiste;
Mr. Leopold Lichtenberg, Violinist;
Mr. Leo Schulz, Cellist.
Res. Seats, $1.50, at Discor's, 867 B'way.

58 TH PROCTOR'S 58 TH CHECKERS

MENDELSSOHN HALL, This (Wed) Aft. at 3 Recital | HAROLD RANDOLPH Two Pianos ERNEST HUTSCHESOM

Reserved Scats $1 and $1.50, at Ditson's HEDEWEY! LADIES: MAT. TO-DAY. East 14th St. Parisian Jamborse, AWild Night HEGOTHAM LADIES MAT. TO-DAY.

WEBER MUSIC B'ways | MAT. WEBER & ZIEGFELD ALL STAR THE COLLEGE WIDOW. PROCTOR'S "BIG FOUR"

58TH ST.—"Checkers. Mata-TO-DAY & Sat. 5TH AVE. "My Wife's Husbands" and Vaude. 23D ST.—Ten Ichi Troupe. Big Vaude Bill. 125TH ST.—"The Vendetia." Vaude between acts. RCLE B'way and 60th. Mat. Daily, 25c. KNOWLES, HOWARD THURSTON, MARY NORMAN, Rassed Ben All's 12 Toposonia Avais, Emen

COMING!!! ALBERT CHEVALIER. MENDELSSOHN HALL, Jan. 10, 8:30 P. M. American Debut of MILADA CERNY, PLANISTE

Scats 50c., 75c. and $1. For sale at Ditsea's. KNABE PIANO USED. PASTOR'S CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS SYDNEY DEANE & CO., THE 3 KEATON'S LEROY & WOODFORD, FINDLAY & BURKE

Manhattan Byay & 38d St. Evgs 812 MRS. FISKE | ELESCHNA HARLEM | Eves. 8:15. Mattinee Saturday.2:16. HOUSE E. M. Holland and Origina

Hurtig & Seamon's West 125th St. Mat. | Paul Conchas Kathryn Osterman & Theatre 4281, bet It Happened in Nordland

STAR Thomas SHEA ished by the King." Han To-night, The Beils

MUSICAL.

FREE

MUSICAL

SCHOLARSHIPS

There of the JEANNETTE
M. THURBER SCHOLARSHIPS for SINGING, PLANO
and VIOLIN now vacant,
will be open for competition
at the NATIGNAL CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
OF AMERICA, 128 East,
17th 8t. New York City,
17th 8t. Ne at the SEMI-ANNIAL ENTRANCE EXAMIof 25 P. M. PIANO, ORDAN, 1.7 (Saturday), echestral instruments, Jan-7 (Saturday), -12: 2-4 P. M. Alcristic Faculty — Rapael Josephy, Delle Margulies, Leopold Lichtenberg, ogene Outrich, Leo Schulz, Henry T. Inck. Max Spicker, charles Heinrott, T. Address Secretary.

For Girls and Young Women. KINDERGARTEN TRAINING-Winter terra an. f. Free Scholarships lid; academie dept. ROEBEL NORMAL INST., Z. A. CUTTEN, 44

MARSHAL'S SALE—By virtue of execution sell this day at 122 East 18th st. one lot of groce 10 A. M. A. L. BLAIR, Marshal. BOOK AUCTION, 119 Broadway, 11 0 clock; 58 4